

University Library provides e-book trial & request service

University library provides many electronic information resources that can be accessed remotely from your home. Available titles can be checked on the library website electronic journal list.

Check the link below for how to use remote access.

< Remote access: Off Campus Web Services Start Page >

https://www.nul.nagoya-u.ac.jp/db/DBannai/ezproxy/index_e.html

* Login with your Nagoya University ID/PW

As part of online education and learning support, we will provide trial and request service for e-books as follows.

[Japanese books]

● Maruzen ebook Library

Approximately 5,000 titles are available.

During the trial period, approximately 60,000 Japanese e-books (including some foreign books) can be trial-read and requested. If you have materials that are required for study or research, please request them.

Available from April 1, 2020 to July 31, 2020

[Foreign books]

● ProQuest Ebook Central

About 900,000 overseas e-books (some of which are Japanese) can be trial-read and requested.

With the spread of COVID-19, ProQuest has provided a service with unlimited simultaneous access to 343 purchased titles.

Number of simultaneous accesses: 1 or 3 → → unlimited

Available until mid-June 2020 (Requests are accepted throughout the year.)

* Some publishers are not applicable.

● Oxford Scholarship Online

More than 16,000 academic titles from Oxford University Press are available.

Simultaneous access: unlimited

Available until December 31, 2020

With the spread of COVID-19, overseas publishers have provided free access to related articles. We will announce useful services sequentially on our website and by e-mail.